MAPPING & LOCATION

Binghamton is at the crossing of three main highways and has easy access to NYC, Scranton, Syracuse, Albany and the Fingerlakes region. Downtown is the business and administrative center of the city and region, as such, it is home to the principal state, county and city offices; housing them in Government Plaza on Hawley Street between State and Isbell streets. Downtown Binghamton has gone through a cultural and economic renaissance over the past few years due in part to the presence of a downtown portion of the State University of Binghamton, one of the top twenty State Universities in the Country. Real Estate values have sky rocketed with large contingent of students living in the downtown. 171 Front is just across the river from the main part of the City, has great accessibility and visibility, less than five minutes from the city core.

KAREN'S BIO

For Greater-Binghamton-based Karen Klecar, commercial real estate is more than a profession, it's a mission. "Commercial properties, large and small, are the key to our economic vitality," she believes.

Klecar is a New York City native, and a Binghamton University alum. She later became a licensed New York State Real Estate Associate Broker, where she worked in Binghamton with Robert A. Mead Associates, Pyramid Brokerage, and Exit Realty, repeatedly winning top seller awards. In 2015, she joined Bridgeway Commercial Realty.

She has served on the Village of Endicott Planning Board; on the Empire Zone Board; the Endicott Historical Preservation Commission; and the Susquehanna Heritage Area Commission. Klecar currently serves as President of the Southern Tier Chapter of NYSCAR (New York State Commercial Association of Realtors). And serves as a Governor of the Board

"I am very keen on historic preservation and repurposing landmark buildings," says Klecar. One of her most satisfying transactions involved finding a new home for the Endicott History and Heritage Center.
